- (1) must be written in language that is easily understood by the general public;
- (2) shall be made readily available to the general public in the manner prescribed by the supreme court; and
- (3) must be translated into the Spanish language.

(c) The Spanish language translation of a form must:

- (2) be incorporated into the English language version of the form in a manner that is understandable to both the court and members of the general public.

(d) Each form and its instructions must clearly and conspicuously state that the form is not a substitute for the advice of an attorney.
